

Lead with confidence

With the doctorate in the educational leadership program, you'll delve into research projects, discussions and field assignments. Plus, you'll gain the skills needed to lead high-performing organizations. Earn your Ed.D. at Lynn and learn from distinguished faculty with extensive experience in the field.

As a student in the educational leadership program, you'll learn how to become a leader in metropolitan education systems for grades kindergarten through 12. This convenient program allows you to attend class one weekend a month within a small group of scholar-practitioners, which is perfect for working professionals.

Educational leadership program details

- Connect research with practice
- Identify critical issues and drive decision-making
- Contribute to students' learning

“Everybody in our cohort was a future education leader. By creating this e-book, we can say, ‘I created this book in my doctoral program. Why don’t I do something like this for my school or district?’”

Jerome Vickers, educational leadership major
